Jesus' Touch

THE GOSPEL OF MARK

FEBRUARY 14, 2021 – 6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ST. LAWRENCE MARTYR CHURCH
FEBRUARY 14, 2021 – 6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Ashes and Holy Communion will be distributed on (Feb 17-19) Ash Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 9am to 7pm. Ashes will not be done in the familiar way. Due to pandemic the priest takes the ashes and sprinkles them on the head of each one without saying anything. You are required to sign up by registering on the Parish website or Click this link. Please sign up only ONCE during the 3-day distribution of ashes to allow other parishioners receive the ashes as well.

GOSPEL: Mark 1.40-45:

A man with leprosy came to Jesus begging him, and kneeling said to Jesus, "If you choose, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, "I do choose. Be made clean!" Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean.

After sternly warning him Jesus sent him away at once, saying to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

But the man went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a town openly, but stayed out in the country; and people came to Jesus from every quarter.

GOSPEL SUMMARY:

In today's Gospel, a leper asks Jesus to make him clean, knowing that Jesus has the power to do so. Jesus is moved with pity, reaches out his hand, touches the leper, and heals him. Jesus tells the leper to tell no one, but the leper spreads the news of his healing to all he meets. As a result, many people come to Jesus for healing.

REFLECTION FOR PARENTS:

It takes discipline to keep our excitement to ourselves. We tell a close friend and make him or her promise not to tell, but somehow word gets out, and before we know it everyone knows what's going on! In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the leper not to share the news of his healing. This invites us to stop and think. Are we good at keeping confidences? Can we wait to share good news until the time is right to do so? A part of being trustworthy is being able to keep things in confidence when we are asked to do so. Why do you think Jesus asked the leper to tell no one of what happened? What happened when the leper told everyone of what happened to him?

BRINGING THE GOSPEL INTO YOUR FAMILY:

Think of people your family knows (or knows about) who are excluded or ignored by others. Maybe there is someone at school who has a disability, or whose clothes are worn out or dirtier than everyone else's. Maybe there's someone at work whose odd behavior is off-putting. In our communities those who are excluded or ignored might include the homeless, the unemployed, or those in prison, foster homes, or hospitals. As a family, talk about ways you can reach out to the people you name, just as Jesus reached out to the leper. Decide on one action you will take in the coming weeks.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:

Being a Billboard for Christ.

“You are a billboard for Christ.” These are the words of popular Catholic speaker Father Mike Schmitz. He’s trying to convey that if we are disciples of Christ, everything we do is a representation of Him. This beautiful reality is combined with a heavy responsibility. We must regularly ask ourselves, are we faithfully reflecting the love and goodness of Christ in our lives?

In today’s second reading St. Paul says that “whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.” As stewards, every facet of our lives should be done to try to glorify God. This does not mean that we must always be in the chapel or being performing extraordinary works of charity. Rather, it means that we must infuse the ordinary events of our life with the powerful love of Christ. One aspect that we can sanctify is our daily work.

We should strive to realize that our work can be the sacrifice that we offer up to God. In realizing that we are working for God, we ourselves will be sanctified. We will slowly realize that everything we do is for Him, spurring us onto greater virtue. This will ultimately lead us to sanctify others for they will see the glory of God in our simple witness. Therefore, let us strive to intentionally say a prayer every morning asking God to help us glorify Him through our daily tasks.

Dear Padre

February 14, 2021

At Mass on holy days of obligation, there's a fair crowd. But on Ash Wednesday, not a holy day, the place is packed. Your explanation?

Indeed, pastoral experience corroborates your observation. Holy days of obligation draw well, but it's "standing room only" on Ash Wednesday. Although not a day of obligation, perhaps it's considered a "holy" day by most Catholics.

There's something elemental about the smudge of ashes on the forehead. People wear it without embarrassment or shame. No matter our walk of life or social status, we want that sooty cross. It's a badge of identification, graphically reminding Catholics that it's "spiritual gut-check" time. It jogs us from our routines, spurring us to the important reality of being who we are supposed to be—fully and totally Christian. It's as if we are saying, "I'm Catholic and proud of it. I may not be the best or greatest. I have faults and sins, but I'm not a bad person. I know deep down that being Christian is the way to live, and I'm going to try again."

Ash Wednesday signals the beginning of Lent, the Church's special time of confession and renewal in preparation for Easter. It is what Christians are all about—a people who have died with Christ in the waters of baptism in order to rise with him to a new life. We renew our baptismal commitment to be his people.

As we celebrate Christ's passage through death to life, we renew our own death to old sinful ways to rise and live with recaptured vigor.

Summary:

In today's second reading St. Paul says that "whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God." As stewards, we can glorify God through our work by realizing that our daily tasks can be the sacrifices we offer up to God. Therefore, let us strive to intentionally say a prayer every morning asking God to help us glorify Him throughout our day.

Lent A Time to Renew

LENT: What does God have in store for you this Lent? Is He asking you to go deeper in prayer? Perhaps to commit to daily meditation? Or maybe He is asking you to grow closer even in the midst of ever-changing circumstances around you.

We don't usually associate Lent with joy. The ashes, more somber music, the dark purple vestments, the discipline and sacrifices, and serious business of repentance all would seem to call for long faces and no room for laughter or joyfulness. But note these phrases from the Lenten Liturgies: "When you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites!" "May we keep this Lenten Season in preparation for the joy of Easter." "Each year you give us this joyful season" Lent calls us to be holy not unhappy. It is indeed a "joyful" time as we seek to better understand the meaning of Jesus' death and resurrection, and to reflect it in our lives.

LENT
Pray + Fast + Give

LENT is a time of fasting and feasting.

To fast from judging others, feast on Christ present in others.

Fast from differences with others; feast on the unity with all life.

Fast from darkness; feast on light.

Fast from thoughts of illness; feast on the healing power of God.

Fast from hostility; feast on peacemaking.

Fast from words that damage others.

Feast on phrases that build up.

Fast from anger; feast on understanding.

Fast from worry; feast on trust in God's presence.

Fast from bitterness; feast on forgiveness.

Fast from complaining; feast on appreciation and thanksgiving.

Fast from self-concern; feast on compassion for others.

Fast from suspicion; feast on truth.

Fast from discouragement; feast on hope.

Fast from problems that overwhelm.

Feast on prayer that brings strength.

ABS-CBN NEWS NEWS.ABS-CBN.COM

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE – CODE OF CANON LAW:

Canon 1250 All Fridays through the year and the time of Lent are penitential days and times throughout the entire Church.

Canon 1251 Abstinence from eating meat or another food according to the prescriptions of the conference of bishops is to be observed on Fridays throughout the year unless they are solemnities; abstinence and fast are to be observed on Ash Wednesday and on the Friday of the Passion and Death of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Canon 1252 All persons who have completed their fourteenth year are bound by the law of abstinence; all adults are bound by the law of fasting up to the beginning of their sixtieth year. Nevertheless, pastors and parents are to see to it that minors who are not bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of penance.

Canon 1253 It is for the conference of bishops to determine more precisely the observance of fast and abstinence and to substitute in whole or in part for fast and abstinence other forms of penance, especially works of charity and exercises of piety.

QUOTATIONS ABOUT LENT:

"Are you capable of risking your life for someone? Do it for Christ." – St. Pope John Paul the Great

"Lent comes providentially to reawaken us, to shake us from our lethargy." -- Pope Francis

"As Lent is the time for greater love, listen to Jesus' thirst...'Repent and believe' Jesus tells us. What are we to repent? Our indifference, our hardness of heart. What are we to believe? Jesus thirsts even now, in your heart and in the poor -- He knows your weakness. He wants only your love, wants only the chance to love you." – St. Teresa of Calcutta

Trust

TRUST IS KNOWING SOMEONE IS THERE TO CATCH YOUR FALL. IT'S
 KNOWING SOMEONE WILL BE THERE
 WHEN YOU NEED A SHOULDER TO
 CRY ON. IT'S KNOWING A PROMISE
 MADE IS A PROMISE KEPT. TRUST IS SOMETHING WE EARN EVERY DAY.
